It's really difficult to find differences among our countries. The role of men and women are really similar. There is no discrimination in these nations.

In the past everything was very different, men and women had their professions and they shouldn't have had another. For example, fifty years ago women should have been a housewife and only men worked. We think that it was really unfair. But everything has changed and everybody is equal.

Group 6. Marzia (speaker) Italy, Karol (speaker) Poland, Laura (thinker) Spain, Nicole (Thinker) Germany, Tuğba (writer) Turkey, Vanesa (writer) Germany

1. What are the roles of men concerning jobs?

2. What are the roles of women concerning jobs?

3. What are the differences among the different cultures?

The questions have been answered all together like a summary.

Poland: Women and man do the same jobs, but they still have typical jobs for men and women.

Italy: Women and man have got the same jobs. 50 years ago women had different jobs

Spain: They have got the same jobs. 50 years ago they had different jobs.

Germany: 50 or 60 years ago women worked as housewife and the man had a work.

Turkey: They can make similar jobs. 60 or 50 years ago they had different jobs.
Woman couldn't do every job.

We notice that every country is very similar to the others and 50 or 60 years ago men did different jobs from women as women were only housewife or maybe secretary or jobs like that while men did the others.
